

SHORT TERM RESULTS

A reference EU Professional Profile for FCN based on WHO and EU recommendations

A reference EU Curriculum for FCN based on WHO and EU recommendations

Guidelines supporting VET designers in the instantiation of local curricula for FCN

Design documents of 3 national curricula in Italy, Finland and Greece

An open online tool supporting case study and best practice sharing for nurses

Guidelines supporting teachers to design effective learning activities starting from the localized curricula

An European e-learning path for VET teachers in the field of nursing

Free Open Contents targeting VET teachers and trainers

Italian, Greek and Finnish pilot courses implementing the EU curriculum for FCN

Recommendations for efficient investments on FCN professionals both for private employers

TARGET GROUPS

VET providers in the field of nursing, policy makers, regulatory bodies for VET in Healthcare sector, nurses professional associations, health and social public institutions and representatives of public and private employers

VET providers in the field of nursing, regulatory bodies for VET in Healthcare sector

VET teachers and trainers in the field of nursing

Graduated nurses

Representatives of public and private employers, policy makers, health and social public institutions

POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES

Individual professional (nurses)

Policy makers, nurses professional associations, health and social public institutions and representatives of public and private employers, individual professionals (nurses)

Policy makers, nurses professional associations, health and social public institutions and representatives of public and private employers

VET providers, students

VET providers

Elderly and their families, public and private healthcare organizations/institutions

Regulatory bodies for VET in Healthcare sector, nurses professional associations

LONG TERM OUTCOMES

Project results are integrated into practice and tools of the regulatory bodies

Collaboration among Policy makers/regulatory bodies and VET providers as to FCN is improved

National curricula are implemented in new courses or editions at local or national level

Improved national and local qualifications and rules for the employment of nurses in PHC sector

Skill mismatch identified in the target of the Italian, Greek and Finnish pilots reduced

After the end of the project Open Contents are used by VET teachers/trainers

TARGET GROUPS

Regulatory institutions participating in the project

VET providers in the field of nursing, policy makers, regulatory bodies for VET in Healthcare sector

Graduated nurses

Policy makers, regulatory bodies for VET in Healthcare sector, nurses professional associations

Graduated nurses

VET teachers/trainers

POTENTIAL BENEFICIARIES

Elderly HHCP's, professional associations, elderly and their families, VET providers, public and private healthcare organizations/institutions

Individual professionals (nurses), nurses professional associations, health and social public institutions and representatives of public and private employers

VET providers, public and private healthcare organizations/institutions

VET providers, individual professionals, health and social public institutions and representatives of public and private employers

Elderly and their families, public and private healthcare organizations/institutions

VET providers